

Clip (Hard Hit) (Volume 9)

Charity Parkerson

Luka was nothing more than a job to Brady... until he wasn't.

When the owner of the Phoenix Ice Rays starts receiving death threats, the first thing he does is hire Brady to protect his son, Luka. It's a move that leaves Luka less than thrilled. Ever since moving out on his own six years earlier, he's come to embrace the silence of his workaholic ways. He doesn't relish being underneath anyone's watchful eye, and what eyes they are. Brady's gorgeous copper-colored gaze follows Luka's every move, scorching his skin, and making him long for things he shouldn't. At least, not with an employee.

Brady has spent the past ten years guarding the spoiled and famous. From the first time he meets Luka's stare, Brady knows this man is different. As hard as Brady tries to keep their relationship professional, he can't stop the growing attraction between them. The more he learns about Luka, the deeper Brady sinks.

But when the threat to Luka's life becomes a real and immediate danger, Brady will go to any length to protect the man he loves—even if it means removing himself from Luka's life.
